

AFCEA Naples Chapter

meets

Commodore Robert HOWELL,
Royal Navy (rtd.)
AFCEA Europe General Manager

NAPLES - Monday 29 March 2010 , h 9.30 – 12.30

Commodore Robert Howell, General Manager of AFCEA Europe, visits Naples Chapter to better know and share our vision of the military's direction in information technology as well as the plans in homeland security and defense.

Lt. Col. ITAF Guido Giordano, local AFCEA Chapter President, is proud to share this call downtown, at "La Maison de la Méditerranée", with selected guests from NATO and National ICT communities.

In particular, following guests are introduced:

- Dott. Edoardo Imperiale, General Manager of City of Science (place where Naples Chapter headquarter was re-located)
- Dott. Bruno Uccello (chief of TechnologyBIZ Events, and secretary of Naples Chapter)
- Ing. Francesco Castagna, candidate as 2010 Naples Young President
- Col. ITAF Dario Nicoletta, chief of NCSA CIS Branch (NATO-Bagnoli)
- Ing. Lucio della Valle, chief of ICT section of Unione degli Industriali di Napoli
- Mr. Cosimo Pastorelli, Homeland Security expert and chief of TECHFOR2010
- Arch. Michele Capasso, President of Fondazione Mediterraneo

Foreword and welcoming are planned to be linked with an ad-hoc video-teleconference.

Closing remarks outline the signature of a Memorandum of Understanding with "The Fondazione Mediterraneo", an international non-profit Organisation of Social Utility (Onlus), which includes specialists and internationally recognised scholars on the Mediterranean, politicians with international and diplomatic experience, and who have been involved in Mediterranean affairs.

Moreover, free time in the afternoon to visit City of Science (Naples Chapter headquarter).
